

GALLERY NUEDGE

Gallery NuEdge Fine Arts Ltd. is the newly opened branch of Galerie NuEdge Fine Arts International L.P., S.E.C. located in Montreal's prestigious Quartier du Musée at 1480 Sherbrooke St. West, Montreal, Quebec, Canada.

Gallery NuEdge, located within the beautiful Limegrove Lifestyle Centre in Holetown, St. James is a dynamic space that exhibits art in the form of multi-media, sculpture, painting, drawing, photography and art installation. The gallery acquires artists from all corners and corridors in the field of art with a primary focus on Contemporary Art; from the up and coming, to the well established, artist's are sought out from both the local and international markets. Their collection boasts a diverse selection of genres and styles that are sure to please the modest art lover or avid art collector.

Currently on display are works from local artists Terrence Rupert Piggott and Allison Chapman-Andrews, Cuban artists Kadir Lopez and Alexander Poll Doval, photography from Amel Chamandy, paintings from Dennis de Caires, Charles Richard, works on paper by Corno and Hannah Alpha, and sculpture by Danielle Barbeau, John Clement, and Lyman Whitaker to name a few. To see a full list of featured artists visit their website: www.galerienuedge.com

An exciting calendar of exhibitions are planned for 2013. If you would like more information on upcoming exhibitions or wish to attend the opening receptions, please call them at (246) 621-0067 or email gallerynuedge@galerienuedge.com to join their mailing list.

Phone (246) 621-0067

Web www.galerienuedge.com

Email gallerynuedge@galerienuedge.com

Where Limegrove Lifestyle Centre, Holetown, St. James

